Voluntary Cosy Provision in Relation to the Powers That Be

Minted at home, hastened bath robe managerial exhibitionist on a bacchanal fuddle look me in the eye pineal disorder look me in the ouroboros hoax the lunar house binge again to a bladdered heart weltered stoic watching with vampiric comfort the regal undying cloisters filled shut away and sing to yourself hurt the tensor lived out a joyless marriage for an international baccalaureate didn't graduate so eating my hand with no backup this adrenal hard-drive boils under me, a thickener to start.

Blood Billionaires in a geriatric paradise get hidden in camomile lawns and cowslips illuminate the epistle flax irises having your everlasting sweet peas and horse meat dinners, I detest thru a key-peel a halo of enemy speech ousting misty hearts-ease and violet playboys the empire over varnished and no hope for sustainable leakage reduction analysis they creep inside your single-glaze lock you in you have to pay premium rate so so humans make their own history! look please fund this carpark! now for non-legacies of financial big flash in the up-scaling pan every carbuncle every council balding bestie scalding the child entrepreneurial style slasher Southwark Council is a Tango with private equity firms Barangaroo under a stone rip off dragnet cash flows cowabunga.

My temples ringing with reduced global headcount like fox-hunting the skies don't worry its legal like tenement shift dwelling deeper inside my line-managers mangled heart will likely vanish and I'll staid on in grease boiling front line out marking your colleague-enemies London drained of all human life isn't it fucking marvellous now we can really get back to this real post-life rebuild and miasma the atmosphere! foot-jobbed rural retreats are in splinter form round vanguard logisticians forming an aleatory map of a city its winter you forgot a wailing offshoot a shrinking gut reboot its a gig and go homeless, tough sil from the sinkhole forgotten people thriving in the undercrofts or pelted windows lassoing four decades of grouting that is HISTORY to the outer dark, a thole in my head is unchecked scullery the pewter scrubs away any civic unrest, always did.

We know from reconstruction and you didn't listen so I have to set fire to this mountain of crated plastic bottles, the size of a short terrace-house covered in shrink wrap stacked on wooden pallets burning all day and all night, the plant wall buckled from the heat inside a rotary of three night-shift types spontaneously relieved of their duties whilst the incendiary potential kept going and everything is take out this smiling law of dead mutton asleep your town got dug up by a quantum chartered surveyor bee-lined a subterranean self-care unit a thole in my own or unseen winged ambit flatten me out, run me over this parsed national jeremiad unmade on cushioned levy on every single soul sought doing privation overcome a bed throw this rotten rented sink in dynamism of a dog leash blow over, again clipping has been turned off the kiss of death on truncheons is a reliable ticket receipt made quieter to the seal of life thicket and spree step on the frog make it crazy again

Police Children are Born

Inside of eaten rent, milquetoast the corners of black mould gently scouring loaned iron skillets or a life non-scarce cosied and out to lunch hasten the dock-less night leave me in one of the many Royal Parks surrounded by swan meat inedible coughed up tributaries to a palisade care from bromides the jobless giblet of gravy of our species the harder you shake the pack the harder a FF175BP fridge-freezer makes sense, on a Sirius rising to singing polymer foils its cavity barrier crowns civis of pulped Celotex and the omnibus pudding boils for hours unattended so stay put rend this dotage, your fault of sweet whips ding-dong a fine divide in net curtains or neighbouring skyline of cutpurses snapped up in sub tenure I go down to the regeneration department on a countless heartbeat, fingering the cool infirmary of municipal socialism, faked patronage broken my angiograms in rescue effort and watch the slenderest margins drop flake on soaring orphans with a council tendency support grant I am catapulted to the event horizon, Dear Peter John A Year in Provence on winter oranges swilling blood snaps on a pawnbrokers bough LTD inflated Roman Law it gets milage as A.D chums blow donee the lot lost in outtage the midnight flicks cannot bless me an echo chamber still so doors locked quick in eviction time O.B.E JCB Apostle Peter John, I was the man injecting drugs into his penis and it will happen again for tillage of Get Living my last new will available, sink it deep in bounty corpora look welt of early impalement sanctioned hair comb as custom blindness hoards whiffle GO pleat leather grain, everything looks great in nuclear light the gangland spire stokes spare music on crimson bob O downpours on Jerusalem get entrepreneurial quickcherry cloudsmith

Turn around, you've missed us.

There were cowbells at the shore that rose on the wind.
The sluice of water into more water.

I heard the screams of children playing over the roar of the gale, I swear to it.

The oysters bed is the oysters cage.

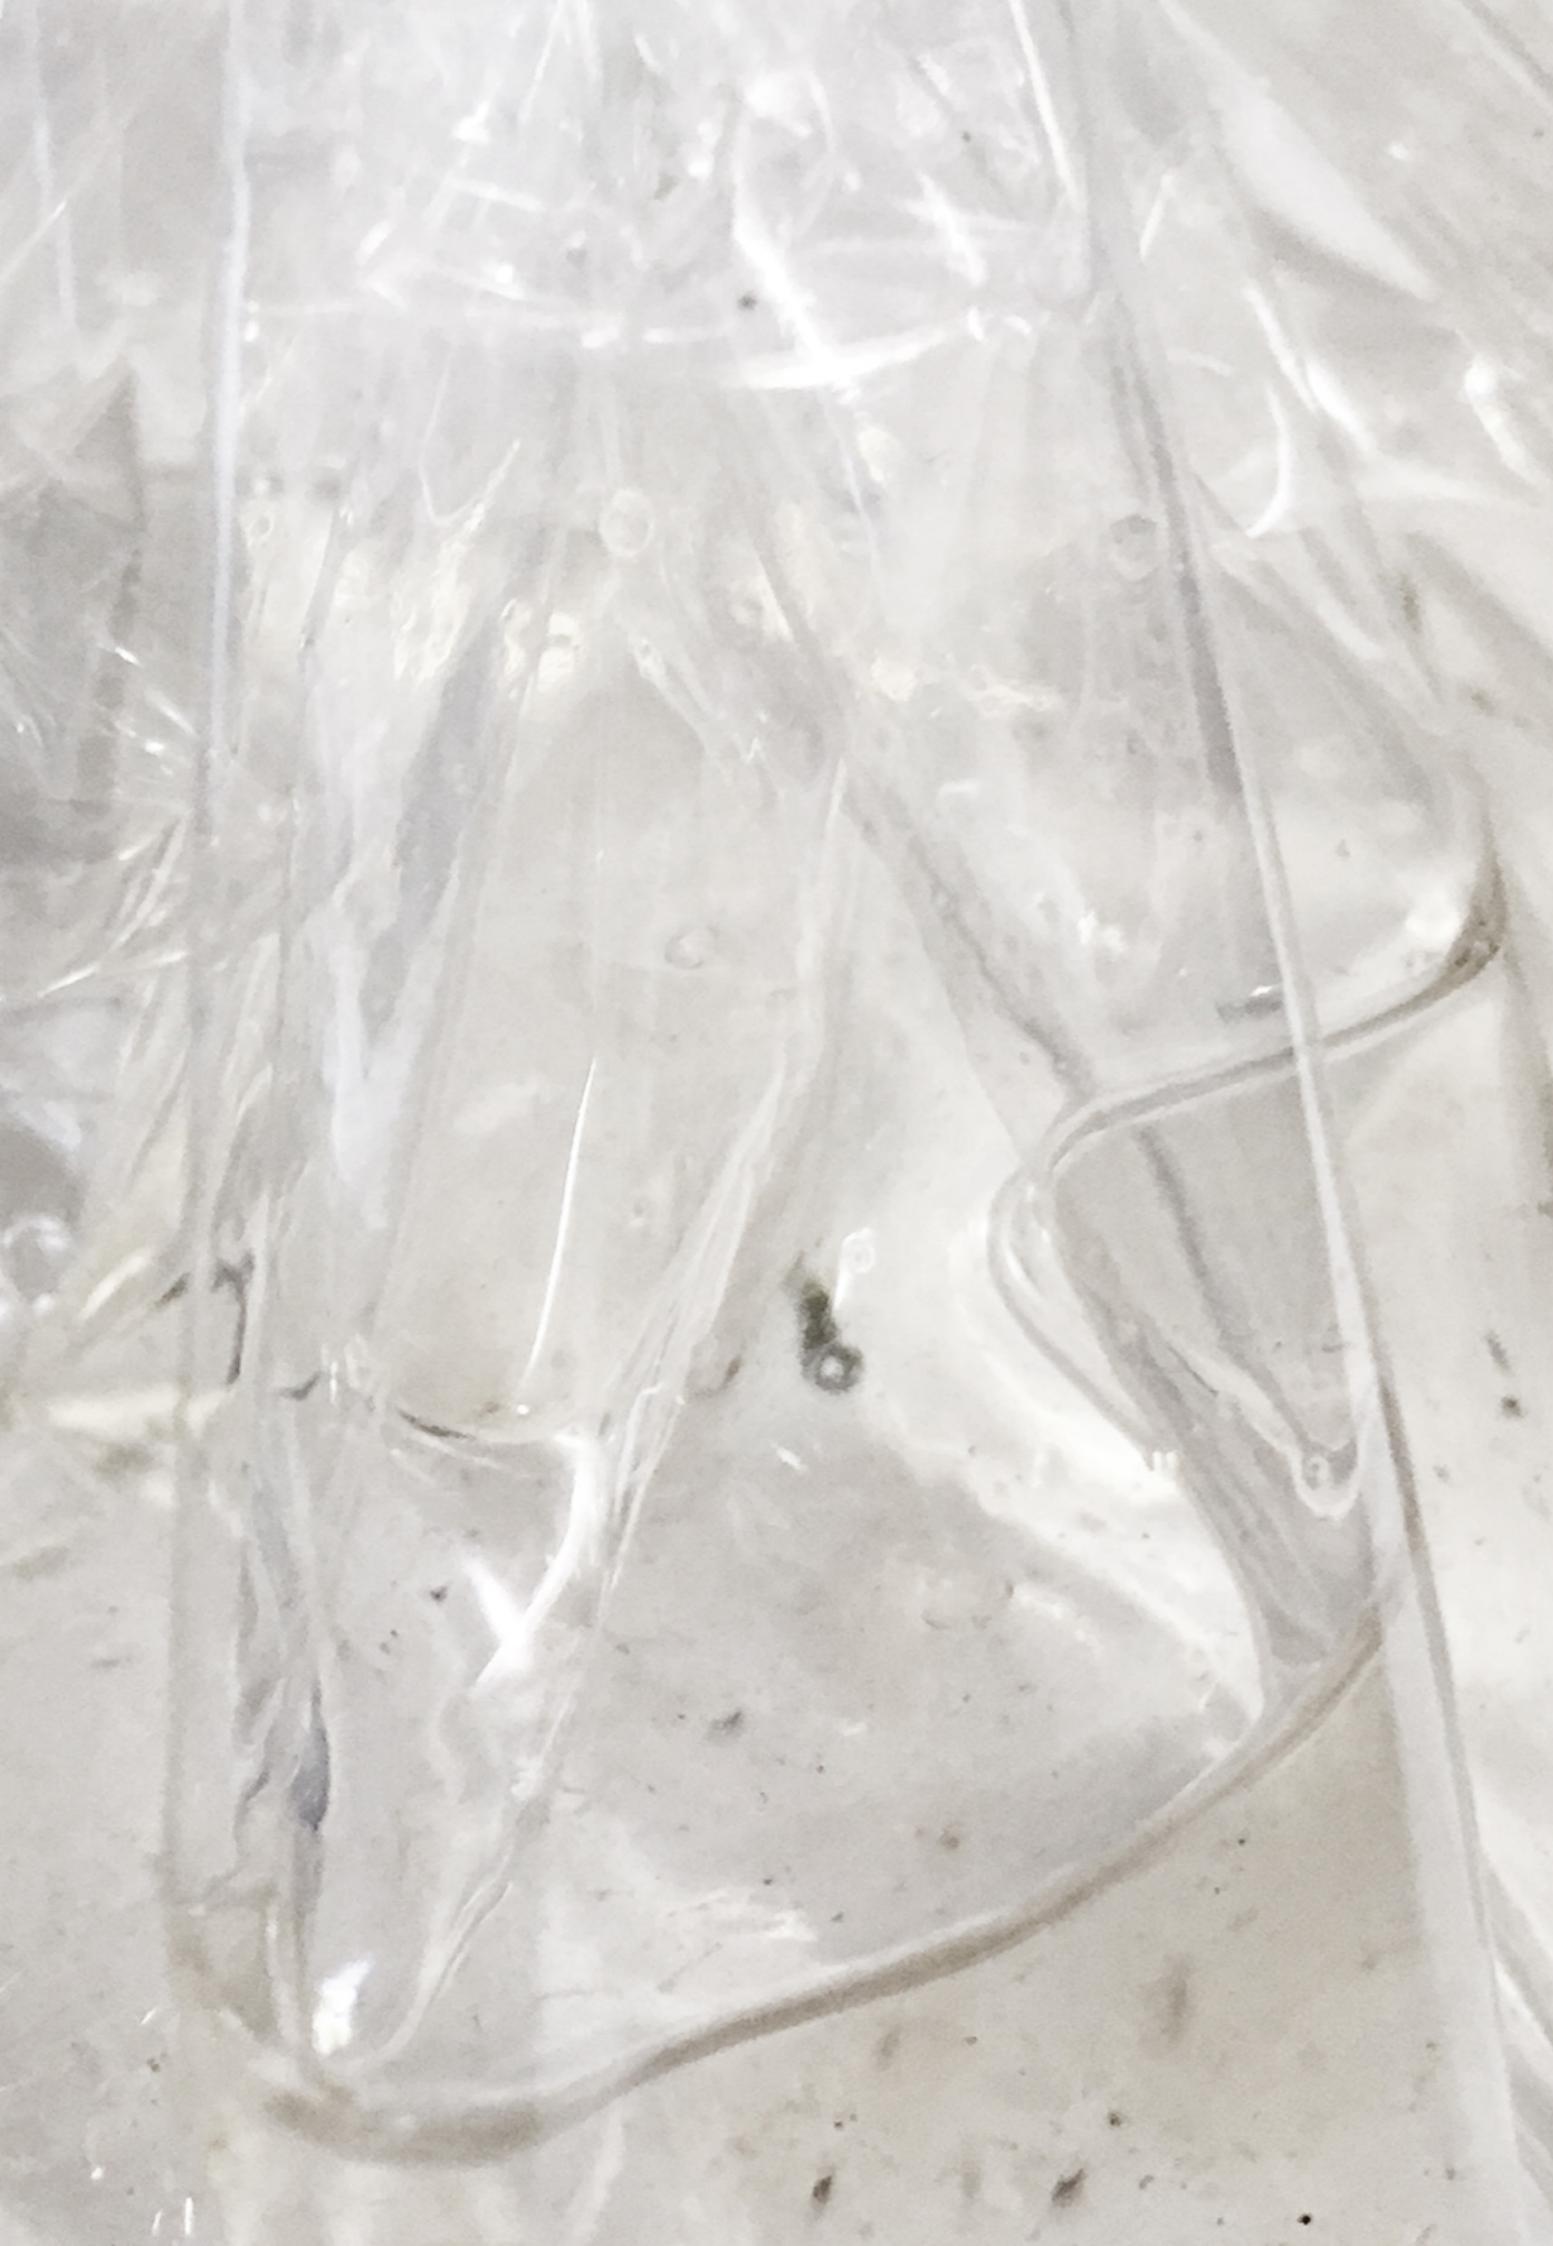

Who would lead the children over this horror;

By hand, guiding them to this mess?

It's that grey, dragging rage of calcified crust, Fossils turned to paste by time immemorial.

A denial in the multitude. I think we've come too far.
